

A Step Towards Equity: A Framework for Integrating Primary Care and Public Health

Center for School,
Health and Education

- First contact
- Continuous
- Comprehensive
- Coordinated
- Community oriented
- Family centered
- Culturally competent

- Prevention of disease
- Promotion of good health & reduction of disadvantages from socially determined circumstances

- Health outcomes influenced by upstream factors
- Societal efforts to address avoidable inequalities
- Reduction in disparities and inequities

- Values the advancement of equity
- Upstream approaches to achieve equity
- Wholistic; incorporates ecological perspective that connects the continuum of human interaction throughout the lifespan

All members of society have the opportunity to attain their full health potential; no one is disadvantaged from achieving this potential because of social position or other socially determined circumstances

